

LEGISLATIVE BILL 855

Passed over the Governor's veto March 20, 1974

Introduced by Richendifer, 16

AN ACT relating to the Nebraska State Historical Society; to authorize the acquisition of certain real and personal property and the construction and operation of a John G. Neihardt Center; and to make an appropriation.

Be it enacted by the people of the State of Nebraska,

Section 1. The Nebraska State Historical Society is hereby authorized to acquire, without cost to the state, clear title in the name of the State of Nebraska to the real and personal property of the John G. Neihardt Foundation and to construct on such real property a structure to be known as the John G. Neihardt Center. There is hereby appropriated to the Nebraska State Historical Society, Agency No. 54, the sum of two hundred thousand dollars for the purpose of constructing the John G. Neihardt Center. The Nebraska State Historical Society may enter into agreements with the John G. Neihardt Foundation for the operation of the John G. Neihardt Center but the society shall be responsible for the general administration and continued maintenance of such property and may accept gifts, grants, and bequests for such purposes.
